Maytee Cordero	YES

Discussion on new business was IPMI for June 8 -11, 2025. The Board confirmed that all Board Members would be eligible to go. Commissioners Hollis, Prindle-Hartley and Davis confirmed attendance. Director Mack and staff will be attending. Director Mack brought to the attention of the Board that the travel policy would be followed and implemented for this trip. Each individual Board member will make arrangements for hotel and air on their own and will be reimbursed upon presentation of the receipts. The Authority will pay in advance for the conference registration. Commissioner Williams declined to go. Vice-Chair Prindle suggested that upon return, the Board members attending submit a report of their finding. Chair Speight suggested that the Board skip the NJ League of municipalities in November and attend the industry conferences.

Director Mack advised that he will forward information he receives related to IPMI virtual conferences that are held through out the year.

There being no further business, motion to adjourn by Commissioner Williams, seconded by treasurer Hollis, approved by unanimous consent. The meeting adjourned at approximately 5:45pm
